ELLOGIES OF SENATOR DAVIS.

With these known facts as a basis some persons have drawn the conclusion that there will be serious social rivalry between the Stephens and the Dockery bouseholds, and that each will make great efforts to outdo the other sociality.

The conclusion is preposterous. Governor Dockery's administration will not set a new record for social performances. The younger element in Jefferson City society is open to disappointment if it has an idea of wearing several sets of tarpaulin carpet-covers to shreds during Governor-elect Dockery's administration. So far frommen tering on a season of sleep-sacrificing social revelry, Jefferson City seems booked for a rather quiet winter.

In fact, strong pressure in that direction is being brought to bear on Governor-elect and Mrs. Dockery by the older element in Jefferson City—the element which is unwilling that dancing men should monopolizathe perty girls, to the exclusion of men of large mental and political attainments who lack Terpsichorean accomplishments. This element wants Governor-elect Dockery to prohibit all dancing at his reception after the inaugural ball.

Such a prohibition would not attract much

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Wace, Tex., Jan. 12.-Duncan McLennan, charged with the murder of Myron C.Kingsbury, his son-in-law, was acquitted, the jury being out only a short time. The plea of defendant was insunity, and the jury acquitted on that point.

contress on that point.

Myron Kingsbury was killed July 13 in his bedroom about 2 o'clock in the morning. His throat was cut from ear to ear and he was deed when the first parties attracted by his cries arrived. Duncan McLennan, Jr., son of the accused, lay dying on the same bed, with his throat cut. The first impression was that they had killed each other, but bloody tracks leading from the room to the barn in the rear gave a ciew. room to the barn in the rear gave a ciew and young McLennan's father was arrested and confessed to the killing, saying tha he had killed his son in the scuffle take.

Mrs. Kingsbury testified to sending her father into the room, where she was at-tracted by the struggle. There was no atempt to deny that the defendant did the killing, but evidence was introduced show ng that Kingsbury had involved defendant in debt so much that he was virtually bankrupt and that, under the strain of finan-cial trouble thus brought about, McLen-nan's mind gave way, and, while thus af-filled, he committed the deed, his son ac-companying him on the shastly errand. The case has caused more excitement than any trial in the history of the county, swing to the prominence of the defendant, who is one of the pioneers of McLennan County, and for whose family the county was named. McLennan is 69 years old.

COMMON SALT SAVES A BABY.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Chicago, Jan. 12—A practical demonstration of the curative powers of salt has been made by Doctor A. C. Cotton of the College of Physicians and Surgeons. With its aid the payeician says he has saved the life of the 7-months-old daughter of Policeman Michael Suilivan of this city. After the child had been given up by another physician. Boctor Cotton mixed a solution of common table salt and water and injected a pint of the liquid into the stomach of the infant, while a smaller quantity was injected in the region of the heart. The baby is now almost recovered. Policeman Sulfivan called on Doctor Cotton to-day to express his gratitude.

Blood Humors

It doesn't make any difference whether you believe in the modern theory and speak of the causes of diseases as referable to germs, microbes or bacilli, or whether you use the older and better understood terms of "humors" and "blood diseases"-Hood's Sarsaparilla cures them all.

It cures scrofula, salt rheum or eczema, catarrh, rheumatism, malaria and all other blood poisons; nervous troubles, debility and that tired feeling. This is not merely modern theory; it is solid up-to-date fact.

"Salt rheum on my hands so severe I had to wear gloves most of the time, and could not shut my thumb and finger together, was cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. A. O. SPAULDING, North Searsport, Me.
"My three months old boy was cured of a very bad case of scrofula by Hood's Sarsaparilla." WM. H. GARNER, West Earl, Pg.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Promises to cure and keeps the promise. No substitute for Hood's acts like Hood's-be sure to get Hood's.

RANSOM POST INSTALLATION.

Luncheon and Entertainment Close the Evening.

A large meeting of the members of Ran-som Post, G. A. R., at which the officers were installed, was held last night at How-ard's Hall, Garrison avenue and olive street. After the formality of the installment, the evening was given over to pleasure. The "Howlers" same, the story-tellers had an inning, and an appetizing lunch was served to everybody.

I EPUBLIC SPECIAL
Marshall, Mo., Jan. 12.—Miss Mary L.
Hale had a narrow escape from death this afternoon. Her horse ran away and the buggy struck a post. She hung to the lines and was drawn over the dashboard and dragged a considerable distance. She was severely injured.
